Lazard Appoints Jean-Louis Girodolle Chief Executive Officer of Investment Banking in France

October 27, 2019

PARIS & NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 27, 2019-- Lazard Ltd (NYSE: LAZ) today announced that, effective immediately, it has named Jean-Louis Girodolle as Chief Executive Officer of Lazard Investment Banking in France. Also appointed are Charles-Henri Filippi and François Kayat as Co-Chairs of Investment Banking in France.

"Jean-Louis Girodolle has the right experience and long history with Lazard to lead our highly successful France Investment Banking franchise, while maintaining our rich culture of creativity and intellectual capital," said Kenneth M. Jacobs, Chairman and Chief Executive of Lazard. "He is one of the firm's great bankers, having advised many of the most important corporate leaders in France, and internationally, on complex and important transactions."

"Our business in Paris is fundamental to our global platform, and that global platform in turn enhances our business in Paris," said Peter R. Orszag, CEO of Lazard Financial Advisory. "With this new leadership team, led by Jean-Louis, we are in a strong position to continue serving our clients with the best advice. We are excited about the future of Lazard in France and across the world."

Lazard, founded in New Orleans in 1848 by three French brothers, opened its Paris Investment Banking office in 1854. Today, it is one of the firm's principal Investment Banking offices, and the base of several global Investment Banking businesses, in particular sovereign advisory, Africa/Middle East and Central & Eastern Europe advisory. In addition to its mergers and acquisitions expertise, the Paris office has teams dedicated to restructuring and debt advisory, shareholder advisory and capital advisory.
