Explanation of Responses:

- The reporting person has become eligible for retirement under the Company's RSU Retirement Policy, which is described in the Company's 2015 Proxy Statement. As a result of the foregoing, certain RSUs, and certain PRSUs for which the performance conditions have been satisfied, that were previously granted to the reporting person are no longer subject to the service-based vesting requirements contained in the underlying award agreements. Such RSUs and PRSUs (for which the performance conditions have been satisfied) have now become subject to taxation and have been settled in the form of Restricted Class A common stock. The Restricted Class A common stock, excluding any portion that the reporting person may be permitted to sell solely in order to pay the related taxes (in accordance with the applicable award agreements), will remain subject to all restrictive covenants contained in the underlying award agreements until the original vesting dates set forth in the award agreements.
- As discussed in the Company's 2015 Proxy Statement, the reporting person received a special RSU award in 2011 in connection with his appointment as Chief Financial Officer. The special RSU award will vest on March 1, 2019. The Company's RSU Retirement Policy is not applicable to the special RSU award. The RSUs granted under the special RSU award have been settled in the form of Restricted Class A common stock, which continues to be subject to all restrictive covenants and all service-based vesting requirements set forth in the original award agreement until March 1, 2019.
- Amount excludes 233,427 shares of Class A common stock of Lazard Ltd beneficially owned by the reporting person.
