A MESSAGE FROM OUR CEO

As Lazard commemorates our 175th anniversary, we reflect on our resilience and progress since our beginning in 1848 as a dry goods store in New Orleans. Throughout our history, we have never strayed from our foundation of serving clients with excellence. Sustainability is a core component of this mission and our commitment to our communities, a diverse workforce and delivering value.

Here are a few highlights from the past year:

Sustainable Financial Advisory

In April 2023, Lazard hosted its inaugural Climate and Energy Transition Conference in New York, attended by more than 150 corporate leaders, investors, policymakers, and economists, to discuss the financial impacts, opportunities and risks of climate change and the energy transition. Key topics included the U.S. government's involvement in the energy transition, a review of Lazard's latest Levelized Cost of Energy+ report, and panel discussions on how public and private markets view the energy transition landscape.

Turning expertise into action, we continue to advise clients on sustainable transactions to capitalize on strategic opportunities within the energy sector and other transition sectors. Recent transactions for Braya Renewable Fuels, Montana Renewables and NEOM Green Hydrogen Company are designed to fund sustainable fuels production and development of carbon-free green hydrogen in global markets. In Europe, we advised Boralex on its partnership with Energy Infrastructure Partners to develop renewable energy. In addition, we advised the Republic of Ecuador on a record debt-for-nature swap transaction that will fund marine conservation of the Galápagos Islands.

Sustainable Investing

Lazard Asset Management continues to be a thought leader, as highlighted in its recent Sustainable Investment Report. Additionally, Lazard offers several sustainability-focused strategies such as Sustainable Agriculture, Climate Action and Sustainable Private Infrastructure each of which has a particular set of sustainability objectives.

Supporting the Next Generation

Through the U.S. Lazard Foundation, we volunteer our time and resources to strengthen our communities. Education for children and young adults is the focus of the Foundation and we work with a variety of charities to mentor and improve the lives of people most in need.

In the summer of 2022, we hosted the second year of the Lazard New Visions Academy, in which we partnered with New Visions for Public Schools to provide approximately 300 New York City public high school students from under-resourced communities with the opportunity to engage with our people and learn professional development skills to advance their career aspirations. Our direct engagement with the students has had a meaningful impact in the development of their professional skills for a broad range of careers. I'm encouraged by seeing first-hand the potential of the next generation of leaders.

Partnering with our Local Communities

Each year, Lazard employees around the world engage and volunteer to enhance the communities where we work and live. In 2022, our Lazard Green teams cleaned-up the River Thames in London, participated in a gardening project in New York and cleaned-up the streets of Tokyo. Lazard Paris is a proud sponsor of the Women's Forum Rising Talents Initiative and participated in discussions to advance and promote women's voices and perspectives.

I am proud of our sustainable mindset, a tenet that guides our firm as we continue to provide trusted financial advice and serve our clients with excellence in future decades.

Kenneth M. Jacobs
Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

The value of diversity is ingrained in our culture and reflects our multicultural heritage. As a global firm that has grown organically from local roots in different countries, we have a deep tradition of respect for individual differences, which has been core to our success as we celebrate our 175th year. The ongoing cultivation of an inclusive, diverse and equitable culture is essential to our continued growth. We are committed to sustaining a respectful environment in which all employees—regardless of socioeconomic status, race, ethnicity, nationality, religion, gender, gender expression, sexual orientation, physical abilities, veteran or military status—can bring their authentic selves to work and maximize their individual potential, as well as our collective success. We are focused on creating a culture where people are able to capitalize on their differentiated experiences and perspectives. It is crucial that they not only feel free to share their point of view but understand that it is expected and valued. Inclusion, Diversity, Equity and Allyship (IDEA) go hand-in-hand in retaining our top talent, and our IDEA strategy demonstrates our efforts across the firm to make progress on this journey.

Every colleague at the firm globally has access to multiple on-demand learning modules that explore living with biases, conscious collaboration and inclusive leadership. As part of our commitment, learning events are hosted by expert moderators and town halls with senior leadership serve as a platform for employees to engage on topical issues. Our campus recruiting includes focused efforts on recruiting women and underrepresented groups through club sponsorships and partnerships. At the campus level, we build relationships with colleges and student organizations that support and advise underrepresented groups. Global & Internal Mobility

At Lazard, we encourage employees to be entrepreneurial and think creatively. This includes identifying ways to expand their relationships and remit within their existing team or globally, to advance the firm commercially. We encourage colleagues to explore cross-department opportunities or roles in other groups. Employees have the opportunity to learn from seasoned professionals — building formal and informal mentor relationships across the firm. Conversely, seasoned professionals often gain valuable insights from their mentees, creating greater awareness and understanding.

Recruiting and Onboarding

Lazard offers a wide range of opportunities across Asset Management, Financial Advisory and Corporate. TRAINING

Engaging Employees on ESG

Each of our businesses offer training and resources on ESG topics unique to their respective industries to ensure our people are educated on policies, procedures and important trends. We also educate employees through thought leadership, town halls with business leaders, internal conferences and our corporate sustainability reporting.

WELLNESS AND BENEFITS

We strive to enhance the total health and well-being of all our employees around the world

Our goal is to enable our people to achieve a balance among their commitments to career, family, and community, so we invest in a variety of programs to support our people and their families along their work-life journey.

Health: Lazard offers comprehensive health plans (medical, dental, vision, telehealth), and our U.S. medical plan, for example, provides coverage for nonstandard services such as IVF and Lasik. Our U.S. LGBTGIA+ employees have free access to Included Health, which is a dedicated health care concierge to help members finding affirming care and navigate benefits.

Lazard reimburses certain fitness and nutrition expenses, such as in-home fitness equipment and discounted memberships to health clubs, and we provide access to on-site flu shots, annual step challenges, nutrition workshops, fitness classes, and fresh fruit deliveries through our global Work to Wellness program.

In addition to physical health, Lazard believes mental health is essential, and we are committed to raising awareness, fighting the stigma, and providing support globally to our people. Our Employee Assistance Program provides free, confidential counseling to help employees and their family members cope with a range of concerns such as stress and depression. We also provide ongoing mental health care through our medical and telehealth plans. In 2022, we launched global campaigns for World Suicide Prevention Day and World Mental Health Day, which included local support resources and live webinars. Lazard also provides free access to meditation and mindfulness apps and services, such as Headspace.

Family: We believe people’s personal and professional lives are equally important. We provide generous paid parental leave for new parents, regardless of gender. For example, in the U.S., our parental leave policy offers 20 weeks of paid leave at full salary for primary caregivers and four weeks for non-primary caregivers. Some of our other family-friendly benefits include private coaching for fertility and parenting, egg freezing and storage, back-up childcare, elder care support, college coaching, and virtual tutoring. In the U.S., we recently increased our adoption and surrogacy reimbursement to a $60,000 lifetime maximum to better support different paths to family building.

Finances: In addition to core programs such as retirement benefits, life and accident insurances, disability insurance and tax advantaged savings vehicles, we offer various financial wellness tools and resources to help employees meet their savings goals and secure a healthy financial future. Work to Wellness periodically sponsors local events and learning sessions on topics such as budgeting basics and managing college savings and retirement accounts.

Coordinated Hybrid Model: We believe that a coordinated hybrid model empowers our employees to balance personal responsibilities while ensuring that we continue to engage in-person, enhancing camaraderie, mentorship and teamwork, and enabling creative spontaneity that often results from collaboration.

SUSTAINABLE INVESTING

OUR INVESTMENT PHILOSOPHY

Lazard’s investing philosophy stems from a belief that financially material long-term changes such as climate change, social inequality and globalization present financial risks and opportunities. As regulators, consumers and technological innovators are increasingly attuned to sustainable business practices investors are similarly focused on financially material environmental and social issues, as well as the quality of governance practices, and the potential impact on industries and individual securities.

We believe our greatest differentiator is our longstanding commitment to proprietary research, which enables us to assess risks and opportunities and generate forward-looking insights. Sustainability-related considerations are not uniform in scope, scale, or duration across companies, industries, or geographies. Across our relevant strategies and products, we seek to identify opportunities and risks that are not currently priced into consensus expectations by connecting our specialist insights. Our investment professionals are supported by in-house expertise in sustainable investing including in carbon analytics, the energy transition, stewardship, and emerging issues such as biodiversity and the circular economy.

Our framework for integrating financially material human capital, natural capital and governance considerations, is fundamental and forward-looking, creating a differentiated view from standardized ratings.

Material issues assessment	Proprietary models	Differentiated investment view
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify sector-specific ESG topics Collate sector specialist insights Align pan-regional themes Contextualize idiosyncratic situations 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Determine quantitative and qualitative metrics Incorporate traditional and alternative datasets Systematically integrate sustainability considerations with financial performance to assess quality 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Engage with company management Evaluate catalysts / externalities that necessitate risk mitigation or unpriced growth Build forward-looking research to generate portfolio alpha

A YEAR OF SEISMIC SHIFTS

We see a pattern of themes that feel more like seismic shifts that have the potential to change the investment terrain, not just in 2023, but for several years to come:

- China “decoupling” from the West
- Globally rising interest rates in response to sharply higher inflation
- Investment in energy transition and renewable alternatives

As we monitor the dynamic marketplace, we seek to capitalize on these opportunities and manage the associated risk with great care.

RESPONSIBLE PRODUCTS

Discovering and quantifying financially material issues ahead of the market offers an informational edge capable of generating improved investment returns over the long term through detailed risk and opportunity assessments. To better assess materiality and understand how which sustainability considerations may impact financial performance, we developed a process that is rigorous, but not rigid, and allows our relevant investment professionals to analyze the issues we have identified as most pertinent to their securities, sectors, regions and portfolios.

Our 300+ investment professionals are responsible for incorporating risk and opportunity assessments into their analysis. ACTIVE OWNERSHIP

Our investment professionals incorporate assessments of governance, human and natural capital into their research where relevant, including investment, voting, and engagement processes

We believe that our investment professionals are best positioned to evaluate the impact that sustainability issues or the outcome of a given proposal will have on long-term shareholder value and stakeholder optimization. We think that shareholder and bondholder engagement is more effective when it is undertaken directly by the analysts and portfolio managers that own the companies or sovereign bonds in their portfolios, as they most fully understand how the relationships between companies, employees, communities, and the environment might evolve and be reflected by valuations in capital markets over time.

CARBON ANALYTICS AND INDUSTRY COLLABORATION

Why are carbon analytics relevant?

Linking carbon analytics to financial performance. As bottom-up fundamental investors we apply idiosyncratic context to understand how decarbonization and the energy transition will impact the financial productivity of issuers. While this is complex and ever evolving, our sustainability specialists, sector analysts, and portfolio managers use proprietary tools in tandem with their deep industry experience to identify climate-related risks and opportunities that may negatively or positively impact financial performance.

How are we helping our clients with their decarbonization objectives?

Providing solutions for clients. Our objective is to help our clients meet their decarbonization goals. These goals may vary widely from client to client and may change over time – there is no one-size-fits all approach. We can provide clients with the information needed to aid them on their decarbonization journey and to better understand their exposure. This information is informed by tools which include our climate alignment assessment, bottom-up asset-level carbon modeling, portfolio-level trajectory model, and green revenues tool which measures a company’s exposure to climate solutions. We have also designed investment products designed specifically for clients that want to allocate capital to company’s providing solutions to climate change, such as low carbon technologies and energy efficient solutions and environmental services.

What are the current challenges with portfolio decarbonization?

Methodologies and data are nascent. We understand that methodologies to assess portfolio decarbonization will evolve over time. Levels of both data disclosure and quality vary widely, and fundamental analysis is often required to adjust for data gaps and inconsistencies. We will continuously innovate to incorporate such concepts as ‘fair share’ reductions, to better understand the nuances of investing in both developed and emerging markets, and across sectors where emissions may be required for economic development and social well-being. We will also focus on real-world emissions reductions with an engagement-first approach rather than simply relying on portfolio turnover to achieve our clients’ portfolio decarbonization goals.

BUSINESS ETHICS

OUR CONDUCT AND CULTURE

Our business and our success begins with responsible employees

Lazard is committed to the highest standards of business principles and ethics. Compliance therefore is not just procedural; it is a critical component of our culture and contributes to our delivery of the highest-quality service to our clients and results to our shareholders. We strive to attract and retain fair, honest, educated and prudent employees, whom we guide with policies and procedures that are designed to define the way we conduct business. We educate our employees to act in accordance with the values and ethics we espouse as a firm in every aspect of our business, and we believe acting with integrity is ingrained in our culture. Our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the “Code of Conduct”) and other internal policies and procedures define the standards that apply to our global employees to enable them to conduct business responsibly and promote a culture of respect and integrity.

We invest in resources to provide controls for risk management, compliance and audit that enable our employees to operate efficiently within the boundaries of acceptable conduct. We have a supervisory structure designed to facilitate compliance with the Code of Conduct and also maintain systems that are designed to enhance oversight of our business activities and their compliance with our standards. For example, we utilize electronic systems to monitor personal securities trading and electronic communications for impermissible activities. Oversight is conducted by our global Legal and Compliance, Human Resources, Internal Audit and other departments, operating throughout Lazard’s offices, all of which ultimately report to Lazard’s executive officers. Lazard’s designated Anti-Money Laundering (“AML”) Officer and other members of the Legal and Compliance Department are responsible for designing and implementing our AML, anti-bribery and anti-corruption policies and procedures.

All employees are expected to be familiar with the contents of employee manuals applicable to their business activities and act accordingly, seeking assistance from the Legal and Compliance department as needed. Every year, our professionals are required to review and affirm their commitment to our compliance policies and procedures. At Lazard, we strive for the highest standards of business ethics and personal accountability, and we take corrective action as necessary to ensure adherence with these standards.

Our Guiding Principles reflect our distinctive culture and guide our standards of behavior that shape our success

Excellence

Live by the highest standards of integrity and discretion.

Empowerment

Develop our people in an environment of learning, respect and dignity.

Engagement

Lead by example with drive and ambition.

BUSINESS INTEGRITY REPORTING PROGRAM

Lazard encourages all employees to speak with management, the Legal and Compliance department, the Human Resources department and/or other appropriate personnel about any suspected illegal or unethical behavior, or any suspected discrimination or harassment in the workplace. We have a global 24/7 Business Integrity Reporting System managed by an independent firm to supplement our existing channels with the option to report anonymously any concerns about possible violations of law, regulation, our Code of Conduct or other firm policies. Lazard strictly prohibits retaliation or any other penalty or adverse action against any individual for reporting in good faith any suspected violation of law, ethics, firm policy or the Code of Conduct, no matter whom the report concerns, or for participating in an investigation of any such report.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

ETHICS AND COMPLIANCE PROGRAM

Our Legal and Compliance department provides training for business ethics, compliance and reporting, with oversight from our Board through regular updates and discussions. Our professionals participate in compliance training sessions that address our policies, procedures, and the consequences of failure to comply. Lazard uses these training sessions to demonstrate the practical application of judgment and highlight areas where ethical and compliance issues can arise. We use these training sessions and real-world examples to convey to employees that raising concerns is a collective responsibility.

We have a framework for escalation and remediation which is communicated across the firm. Our employees are trained and educated on applicable laws and regulations addressing anti-bribery, anti-corruption, anti-money laundering, know your customer, economic sanctions, facilitation payments, and terrorist financing.

Our Business Principles are intended to create a culture of transparency, awareness and personal responsibility through education, collaboration, monitoring and reporting.

Leadership and Training

Senior managers are responsible for providing clear direction and setting the tone of responsible business conduct in accordance with our culture and policies. We expect senior managers to lead their teams with integrity and the utmost adherence to our values. This involves ensuring those under their supervision comply with the firm’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and other policies and abide by applicable laws and regulations. Our senior managers play a critical role in promoting a culture of excellence and accountability so we can work together to serve clients to the best of our ability.

“We foster and reinforce a culture of integrity and prioritize managing risks our business may encounter. Through our work implementing policy and procedures informed by current regulation, the infrastructure we build is designed to enable our functions and people to perform at the highest standards.”

CULTURE OF RISK MANAGEMENT

We foster a culture of professionalism and integrity

RISK MANAGEMENT GOVERNANCE

Spotlight on Cybersecurity

Lazard’s cybersecurity program is led by our Chief Information Security Officer (CISO), who oversees our global information security strategy and program. We believe the protection and security of sensitive information across each of Lazard’s offices and business lines worldwide are an important aspect of our business practices and an integral part of our risk management framework. Discretion and ethical behavior of each of our employees with respect to Lazard’s assets, clients, business partners and other stakeholders allows us to carry out our services efficiently and safely.

Training & Education

Our CISO hosted a series of interactive Lazard-specific Information Security Awareness training sessions across regions covering the following topics:

-  Importance of cybersecurity to Lazard
-  Employee roles and responsibilities in protecting our assets
-  Global cybersecurity and the evolving landscape

Global Discussion

In October 2022, our CEO Ken Jacobs moderated a global town hall with a panel of cybersecurity experts including Lazard’s CISO, covering a range of topics including today’s cybersecurity threats and best practices for safeguarding personal data.

Risk Management Lazard’s risk management framework is designed to ensure the reduction and mitigation of business and financial risk within the global market in which we operate. Risk management and protection is embedded throughout our company, integrated in both our investment research and valuation processes, and in our financial advisory services. We monitor and address risks through a system of internal controls, management systems, organizational structures, audit processes, compliance programs and a variety of other standards and policies. In Asset Management, we employ three separate levels of risk management oversight: (1) Portfolio Managers monitor portfolio risks on a real-time basis, (2) the Global Risk Management team regularly reviews all strategies, positions, sector and country allocations with quantitative tools, and (3) the Compliance Department reviews transactions and effectuates policies and procedures for the firm.

Due Diligence We evaluate clients prior to providing asset management or advisory services and may conduct periodic reviews over the lifetime of the client relationship. We screen clients and transactions for evidence of illegal activity, civil, criminal or tax-related penalties, sanctions, embargoes, or negative media references. We monitor our business relationships for any change of circumstances which may warrant further investigation. Lazard maintains policies and procedures designed to identify and properly report suspicious transactions. Employees are responsible for recognizing suspicious business behavior concerning the nature of a transaction and have an obligation to take appropriate steps to report such conduct.

Governance and Oversight Our Board, working together with the Audit Committee, undertakes a comprehensive review of Lazard’s risk profile and risk management strategies at regular intervals. Our Global Risk Committee meets biweekly and members of Lazard’s finance team, led by the Chief Financial Officer and the Head of Risk Management, review with the Audit Committee categories of risk we face, including any concentrations, interrelationships, and financial and cyber exposures. Many of those risks are subject to review by Lazard’s Internal Audit team through a formal audit program as well as ad hoc reviews.

Internal Audit Internal Audit is an independent function and serves to evaluate internal processes and controls throughout the firm to mitigate risks that may pose a threat to our business. Internal Audit is responsible for monitoring the integrity of financial and operational reporting, monitoring our cybersecurity programs and procedures, and ensuring our compliance with laws and regulations. The Global Head of Internal Audit reports to the Audit Committee quarterly. The Audit Committee reviews risks deemed material at regular meetings and reports such risks to the Board.

Education and Training on Risk Principles Lazard regularly reports on the types of financial and non-financial risks we may face as a firm. To reinforce our reports and policies, we educate employees on risk-specific principles and training is provided to new and current employees annually. Outside these formal training sessions, Lazard offers resources, tools and real-world examples with respect to risk management within our intranet and knowledge-sharing platforms. Through our internal systems, employees can engage on these topics and share best practices to prepare themselves to make professional decisions in challenging situations.

LEADERSHIP AND GOVERNANCE

LEADERSHIP SPOTLIGHT: CEO SUCCESSION

At Lazard, our business is led by strong corporate governance practices, implemented by our senior management and Board of Directors, which demonstrates our commitment to responsible business and conduct. One of the most consequential responsibilities of the Board is to ensure a smooth transition of leadership. In 2023, Lazard's Board announced the leadership succession of Peter R. Orszag, CEO of Financial Advisory, to become CEO of Lazard, effective October 1, 2023. Kenneth M. Jacobs, Chairman and CEO since November 2009, will serve as Executive Chairman of the Board.

Our Workplace and Culture subcommittees develop internal engagement and feedback regarding talent retention, well-being and professional development.

ENVIRONMENTAL FOOTPRINT

The scope of our environmental footprint principally derives from two main sources: energy usage in our offices and business travel. In this report, we have estimated our GHG emissions from our leased office space (S1 and S2), and business travel (S3) where information is available from third-party business partners.

Click here to view the GHG inventory verification statement.

In 2020, we updated our GHG emissions to include our indirect emissions from investments in portfolio companies in Assets Under Management (AUM).

GHG EMISSIONS Measured in metric tons of CO₂ equivalent	2019	2020	2021	2022
Scope 1 (S1)	1,533	1,564	1,565	1,286
Scope 2 (S2)	6,515	5,850	5,253	5,232

Total employees	3,018	3,106	3,179	3,402

Scope 1 Emissions estimated from building equipment utilizing fossil fuels to provide ventilation, heating and air conditioning based on square footage of leased properties.

Scope 2 Emissions of purchased electricity estimated based on square footage of leased properties.

Scope 3 Data for 2019 includes North America, France, the U.K., Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, and UAE. Data for 2020, 2021 and 2022 reflects global travel program.

Scope 3 AUM Represents financed carbon emissions for approximately 65% of Lazard’s AUM as estimated by Trucost. In 2022, we updated our methodology to align with industry practice of apportioned Scope 1 and Scope 2 emissions for portfolio companies. This is consistent with the Asset Management Portfolio Metrics section of our TCFD Report.
